—Mr. Wm. Corson, of Frostown, who has been a patient at the Kane Summit hospital for some time suffering from typhoid fever, was taken to his home on the B. & O. train this morning. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Fulton. —Kane Republican, 17th.

—THE REPUBLICAN is indebted to Mrs. W. J. McKee, of Tionesta township, for a sack of five apples sent to this office Monday. The name of the variety is not given, but it Oregon produces any larger or nicer fruit we want to see it. The apples were grown on young trees and most of them weigh three-fourths of a pound each.
—All Hallows' evening, which occurs a week from tomorrow night, is destined to be celebrated with greater eclat this year than ever before according to what we read in the papers of surrounding towns. The event is becoming more of a town-making festival each year, and if properly celebrated much innocent amusement is furnished both old and young. It is to be hoped that Tionesta will not lag in its enthusiasm this year.

—A. E. Daniels received a message last week apprising him of the serious illness of his eldest son Cyril, at a hospital at Akron, Ohio. He left for there on the first train and found the young man suffering from strangulated hernia, and an operation was immediately determined upon. Later reports from the father state that his son's trouble has been further complicated with pneumonia and that his condition is very critical. Cyril went to Akron about three weeks ago and accepted employment with the Goodrich Rubber Co.
—A short session of argument court was held last Thursday afternoon, presided over by President Judge W. D. Hinckley and Associate Judge Joseph M. Morgan. Evidence was taken and divorce decrees were granted in the cases of John S. Eddy vs. Libbie Eddy and Jessie R. Berlin vs. Jacob Berlin. An argument for a new trial was made in the case of Elmer Walters vs. Dunn, Landers & Co., in which the plaintiff had been awarded a judgment at September court. Judge Hinckley took the papers in the case and will give his decision later.

—A special from Harrisburg says that State Highway Commissioner E. M. Bigelow has announced that on and after Nov. 1 he will accept applications for 1913 licenses for automobiles, trucks, motorcycles and drivers. Blanks will be furnished applicants on request. Deliveries of 1913 license tags will begin early in December. The use of the 1912 tags will be prohibited after January 1. Hereafter they have been permitted until February 1.

—The quarantine for diphtheria established at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Metcalf, North Franklin street, has been removed. Miss Flora E. Metcalf, who was the patient and who was quite seriously ill for a time, was on Saturday able to be out for the first. Despite her sledge of illness and the severity of the case, no others of the family were affected. —Titusville Herald. Mr. Metcalf was formerly a resident of Stewart Run, this county.

—Charles Rudolph, eldest son of Otis Rudolph who is the jobber for Wheeler & Dusenbury at Pine camp on a branch of Hickory creek, met with a distressing accident Tuesday of last week. The young man was thrown from a loaded car striking on the railroad ties in such a manner as to split both knee caps, very painful and serious injuries, though at last accounts he was making good progress toward complete recovery, under the care of Dr. Morrow.

—An entertainment and lecture course is essential to every community boasting of culture and refinement and we are glad to know a local committee has taken the matter in hand to provide for such a course for the coming winter. Four lectures and two concerts will be given. Some of the talent will be secured from the Empire State Lyceum Bureau, and some from the Ithaca Conservatory of Music. The entire course will be furnished for $1.00 a course ticket and with the support it ought to receive the committee in charge feel they can meet the expenses of the course. The names of the attractions and dates will appear in our next issue.

—The fight against consumption is everybody's fight. This disease is no respecter of persons. It exists more frequently perhaps among the poor than the rich, still everybody is liable to become infected. It was with this thought in mind that the Red Cross Society originated the idea of selling little seals all over the country for one penny a piece, giving everybody an opportunity to do their little. The few pennies or a dollar or two expended for these little emblems of good health will greatly assist in the fight against the disease and help make this district free from the germs which cause the trouble. When offered for sale, buy them with money you are saving now.

—Additional particulars of the death of Isaac W. Shunk, who died Oct. 24, at Los Angeles, Cal., state that he was partaking of his evening meal and fell from his chair. He was dead when his wife reached his side. An inquest developed the fact that his death was caused by cirrhosis of the liver. He is survived by his father, Jonas Shunk, of East Hickory, two brothers and three sisters, J. H. Shunk, of Whig Hill, Mrs. I. C. DeLoe, of Erie, Pa., Mrs. H. C. Pullman, of Cleveland, Ohio, D. W. Shunk, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Mrs. B. J. Day, of Dunkirk, N. Y. Mr. Shunk leaves a wife and one step-daughter to mourn his loss, one child, his daughter, having died five years ago at the age of 17 years.

—Caldwell Hoover, doubtless one of the oldest and best known residents of the vicinity of Tylersburg, where he spent the greater portion of his long life, died on the farm on which he had lived for many years, on Tuesday, Oct. 15, 1912, of infirmities incident to age, having passed his 84th year. His last illness was but a few days' duration, he having suffered a slight stroke of paralysis a short time prior to death. Two sons and two daughters survive, Nicholas F., of Marienville; Edward, Mrs. Perry Terrell and Miss Lizzie Hoover, the latter three children residing in Washington state. The burial took place Thursday, the remains of Mr. Hoover being laid to rest beside those of his wife in the cemetery at Tylersburg.

—Homer J. McCintock, for the past thirty years correspondent and newspaper subscription solicitor, mostly for the Derrick, was found dead in his room at the Pettibone apartment, Oil City shortly before midnight Monday. The deceased was well known to the people of this vicinity, where he had been a frequent visitor in connection with his soliciting work, having recently spent several weeks here in that capacity. He had complained of not feeling well, but on Sunday was walking about the streets. That night he became quite ill and a physician was called who prescribed for him, leaving some medicine, which a friend had volunteered to give at the proper hour. A few minutes before midnight the friend went to the room for that purpose and was astonished to find the patient had died. The physician gave as his opinion that death was due to exhaustion of the vital forces. The deceased was born at Dempseytown, Venango county, Dec. 14, 1849. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Fisher, wife of Dr. Herbert Fisher, and one son, Glenn, none of them residents of Oil City.

—A Deer Lodge, Montana, paper of recent date contains the following pleasing reference to Mrs. Hart, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Scherer, of Endeavor, Pa., in an account of a recital given by the four members of the faculty of the School of Music and Expression of the College of Montana: "The program was so arranged that each member could show their peculiar fitness for the particular line of instruction for which they have been engaged. It is not too broad a statement to say that the College of Montana now has the foundation started for a splendid conservatory and that no stronger, capable, talented and accomplished corps of instructors are to be found in the west connected with a single institution. * * * Eds. A. S. Hart, A. B., Piano. Mrs. Hart is, beyond question, one of the most accomplished pianists in the country and she is an enthusiast. The College of Montana is indeed most fortunate to secure a piano teacher of her ability and accomplishments. She is a graduate of several conservatories of this country, but finished by spending three years in Germany, graduating from the Royal Conservatory at Stuttgart. Her selections Friday evening were greatly appreciated and were given cordial applause. Her technique and expression are fine."

Clark-Lawrence.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence on Tuesday morning, October 22, 1912, at nine o'clock, when their youngest daughter, Bertha Anne, was united in marriage with William H. Clark, of Schenectady, N. Y., Rev. H. A. Bailey, of the Presbyterian church, officiating, only the immediate members of the families witnessing the ceremony.

The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was unattended, Edwina and Margaret Fitzgerald, nieces of the bride, acting as flower girls. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers, the colors being pink and white, and after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the dining room, covers being laid for twenty-seven. A large bouquet of pink and white roses formed the centre piece of the bride's table, at which ten were seated.

The bride and groom were reared in Tionesta, where they are both deservedly popular.
Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Graeves and son John, of New Alexandria, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fitzgerald and daughters of Kane, Pa., were home for the occasion.
The bride and groom left on the 11:01 train and after a short wedding trip will be at home after December 1st at 322 Glenwood Boulevard, Schenectady, New York, where the groom holds a responsible position with the American Locomotive Works.

Lindquist-Wadsworth.
A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Wadsworth, at Endeavor, last Wednesday, Oct. 16, 1912, at two o'clock, when the words were spoken by Rev. John F. Scherer which united the lives of David E. Lindquist, of Olean, N. Y., and Miss Bessie A. Wadsworth. The house was very prettily decorated with autumn leaves, and promptly at the hour named the strains of the wedding march came forth from the piano, presided over by Miss Virginia Jones, and the wedding party, preceded by the flower girls, the Misses Nellie Henderson, Gladys Wadsworth, Eva Roof and Mildred Lindquist, took their places, and the ring ceremony was performed. The bride was given away by her father, and carried a shower of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Viola Grubbs, of New York City, carried a shower of roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Fred Lindquist, of Tidouste. The bride was the recipient of many handsome gifts.

The happy couple departed on the six o'clock train for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their many friends at Olean, N. Y.
Out of town guests were present as follows: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roof, of Titusville; Miss Mabel Corlies, of Waterford, Pa.; Miss Agnes Killeen, Miss Margaret Rooney, Miss Maude Carlson, of Warren; Miss Leah Hamaker, of Renovo; Mr. and Mrs. Hickernell, of Erie; Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Lindquist, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lindquist, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lindquist, Miss Josephine Lindquist, of Tidouste. Also the following from town: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitmore, Mrs. Mary Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. English, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fox.

Letter From Jim McCrea.
From a personal letter of our friend L. L. (Jim) McCrea, now residing at Taft, California, we take the liberty of extracting a part for the edification of his old friends here:

I have read, with more than passing interest, the dope on those damn' propositions, and am in hearty sympathy with the very worst that the law allows you to print in censure of the promoters, and hope that you will keep your hammer handy and continue to knock till your legislature makes it possible for "Capital" to erect death-traps over your heads, and then drop the hammer and use dynamite. And don't forget to vote the Socialist ticket in 1916. "Everybody will be doing it then." Nix.
I have had steady employment since I came here last March at $5 and up per day, and all that worries me is shame to think I was fool enough to stick at Meadville for 7 years to be drowned twice a year and frozen solid 5 months each year, while I was earning just enough to keep that gaunt wolf of hunger not farther away than the last pay day.
It is hard to realize that the town-site where Taft stands was sagebrush two years ago. The best buildings will compare with the good buildings of the towns and small cities of the east. One, a $40,000 school, is a credit to any place. I worked on a hotel that is of modern fire-proof construction and cost approximately $1,000 per room.
I long to be back in Forest county for the next four weeks. Think I would like to chase those pheasants around till they die of exhaustion or get so wild that you and the rest cannot sneak up on them and pot them on the ground. We are well supplied with all feathered game, except ruffed grouse and woodcock, the only two real game birds on earth. Quail can be found in flocks of 500 or more in the foot-hills near here, but they don't look gamey like an old cock grouse getting up with his roar of good bye.
I was down to B. V. Lake Sunday and saw more water fowl than I believed was in the whole United States at any one time. One raft of geese more than 1 mile across, and every goose had something to squawk to his friend at the other side of the flock. The noise they made nearly made a goose out of me. A person cannot realize without the evidence of his own eyes, the vast myriads of fowl that congregate and winter at that lake. There are also jack-snipe, Wilson snipe, curlew, ibis, and all species of smaller waders in abundance.
We have an organized blue-rock club and hold a shoot every Sunday afternoon. There is a membership of 50 and there are several fine shots; one man, Mr. Harris, broke 56 straight; another, H. Skelton, 51 straight, and three 25 straight last Sunday. The writer takes his from 80 to 90 per cent and feels rather puffed up at 55 per cent.
Give my regards to our mutual friends, and say that I still think kindly of all Tionesta acquaintances.
L. L. McCREA.

MARRIED.
HASLET—BERLIN.—In Tionesta, Pa., Oct. 17, 1912, by D. W. Clark, J. P., Earl W. Haslet and Mrs. Jessie R. Berlin, both of Endeavor, Pa.

Recent Deaths.

REYNER.
Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Reyner, wife of Samuel H. Reyner, died Thursday, Oct. 17, 1912, at the family home at Tylersburg, Pa. She had been in failing health for a number of weeks, her illness being of a tropical nature. Mrs. Reyner was the daughter of the late David and Jane McCloskey, pioneer residents of that section, and was born in Tylersburg, Jan. 10, 1857. Early in life she was united in marriage with Mr. Reyner, and her entire life was spent in Tylersburg, where she was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. Since 1878 she had been a member of the M. E. church and was always a faithful worker in the Lord's vineyard. The family will mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother and the community a kind neighbor and faithful friend. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. C. D. Shorts, at home, and one son, Roy Reyner, of New Brighton, Pa.; also by the following brothers and sisters: C. E. and Joseph McCloskey, of Tylersburg; William McCloskey, of Reynoldsville, Pa.; Mrs. George Marshall and Mrs. Michael Walters, of Tylersburg. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church, Saturday afternoon at 2:30, the services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. D. Walker. Interment in the Tylersburg cemetery. The deceased was a member of the Rebekahs and also of the L. O. T. M., and the Odd Fellows lodge of Tylersburg attended the funeral services in a body.

DAWSON.
Friends here were apprised Monday of the death at his home at Collingswood, N. J., Saturday morning, October 19, 1912, of J. A. Dawson, for more than half a century one of this community's best known and very highly respected citizens. It was known here that for more than a year past, when he suffered an attack of pneumonia, Mr. Dawson had been considerably broken in health, but they were hardly prepared for the news of his death which was quite unexpected. Mr. Dawson was esteemed highly for his sterling honesty and integrity—a citizen who was an honor to any community.
John Allender Dawson was born at Stewart's Run, in what was then Allegheny twp., Venango county, (now Harmony twp., Forest county), Pa., July 15, 1835, being a son of James and Elizabeth (Allender) Dawson. His father and paternal grandfather were natives of Ireland, the latter immigrating to America and becoming a pioneer in the vicinity of Pit-hole, Venango county. His maternal grandfather, (Allender), was of English descent, and a pioneer of what is now Harmony township. James Dawson settled as early as 1812 on the farm which he was the subject of this sketch, afterwards owned and spent the greater portion of his life upon, cleared and improved it and died there long years ago; he was a soldier of the war of 1812. It was here that Mr. Dawson was born and reared, and with the exception of four or five years, his whole life was spent there. In 1808 he married Miss Susie C., daughter of John W. and Parmelia Smith, of Crawford county. To them two sons were born, George R. E. Dawson, and Ralph, the latter having accidentally shot and fatally wounded himself when a boy. Mrs. Dawson and son George survive, also one sister, Mrs. J. Tyler Watts, of Jamaica, Long Island. Three and a half years ago the family moved to Collingswood, where they have since made their home.

Funeral services were held yesterday at his late home, and the interment took place in Harleigh cemetery, Camden, N. J.
SIGGINS.
A host of old friends in this community will be pained to learn of the passing away of a once familiar and ever genial comrade in the person of J. P. Siggins, "Pat," as he was endearingly called while a resident amongst our people, and as a comrade of the civil war. From the Bradford Evening Star of October 21, 1912, we take the following account of our old friend:
James Patterson Siggins died at 3:15 a. m. today at his home No. 71 High street, at the age of 73 years. Deceased had been in poor health for some time and two weeks ago exhibited indications of a general breakdown. Thereafter his condition grew worse until the end came.
Mr. Siggins was born in Tionesta, Forest county, Sept. 8, 1839, and came to McKean county in 1877. He was united in marriage in Westfield, N. Y., Jan. 6, 1878, to Sadie Barden, of Sherman, Chautauque county, N. Y., and by a former marriage to Rachael Henderson, who died May 9, 1873. Two children were born to the first union, but both died in childhood. In July 1891, Mr. Siggins enlisted as a private in Co. G, 83rd Pennsylvania volunteer infantry, 3rd brigade, 1st division, 5th army corps. He was soon promoted to first sergeant and was wounded twice during his three years of service. Mr. Siggins took part in the following battles: Siege of Yorktown, Hanover Court House, Richmond, Second Battle of Bull Run, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Mine Run, Wilderness, Spottsylvania Court House, Cold Harbor, Siege of Petersburg and Weldon Railroad. He received an honorable discharge on Sept. 20, 1864. His paternal grandfather, George Siggins, served in the war of 1812 and his brothers, Nathaniel S. and Isaac W. Siggins, were also soldiers of the Civil war, serving enlistments in the 83rd Pennsylvania volunteer infantry. Deceased came to the oil country following the close of the war. He became a driller and worked in many of the important fields of this state. He was well known and highly esteemed. Deceased was a member of John S. Melvin Post No. 141, G. A. R., of which organization he was junior vice commander and post chaplain. He was also a member of Encampment No. 7, U. V. I., of Bradford, and Bradford Tent No. 4, K. O. T. M. He is survived by his widow, one brother, John W. Siggins, of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Peter Grace, of Robinson, Ill. Funeral services will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. F. S. Tineber officiating. Interment at Oak Hill.
Mr. Siggins was elected treasurer of Forest county shortly after its reorganization, serving from 1899 to 1872.
